Summer History Camp 2012

Explore ... Discover ... Create!

Have an adventure this summer in a fun and creative environment at the Fairfield Museum and The 1750 Ogden House! Explore history, arts and culture with activities that include interactive tours, games and hands-on craft projects and more.

History Camp

Discover how children just like you lived in the past! Fairfield's rich history is the setting with interactive tours, games, cooking, outdoor activities and crafts. Explore the secret corners of The 1750 Ogden House and learn about life in colonial times through historic objects and hands-on activities. The final day meets at the Fairfield Museum where you explore the historic sites on the Town Green. Travel back to 1804 in the Academy Schoolhouse, try your hand at ropemaking and view the tools of farm life at the Victorian Barn.
